

Jackson Lodge-April's Maple Short Loop (8 miles)
(8 mile woods trails and back-roads mountain bike loop)

This is an intermediate ride, best for mountain bikes or experienced cross bike riders. You'll ride on very quiet back-roads or double track trails through the woods, with a good balance of uphill, downhill, and level riding. Near the end of your ride, stop at April's Maple sugarhouse for ice cream in maple coated cones, or maple cotton candy. You can even take a tour. And, it's all downhill from April's Maple to Jackson's Lodge on smooth pavement with little road traffic.

Directions from Jackson's Lodge:

- ⤴ Turn right from Jackson Lodge Road onto Route 114. Ride 1.5 miles.
- ⤴ Turn left onto Dubeau Road and ride 1 mile.
- ⤴ Turn right onto a snowmobile trail. This trail is just after a log house that you can see ahead on your right. You'll pass over a bridge (be careful on the boards with your tires) and it will start going uphill. Ride 2.45 miles on this trail.
- ⤴ Turn right when you intersect with unmarked Cole Hill road, and head downhill to April's Maple.
- ⤴ From parking lot of April's Maple, turn right onto 114 and ride 2.8 miles back to Jackson's Lodge.
