

Cabin Care Specialist : Join Our Team at the Lake

Imagine starting your workday with fresh air and a view of the water. Jackson's Lodge is looking for a hardworking, dependable Cabin Care Specialist to join our small team at our lodge on Lake Wallace, Vermont. This is a seasonal position running May through the end of October.

Taking names now so you can secure your spot and be ready to go when the season opens in May.

What you'll do

- Clean and prepare guest cabins between stays, including bathrooms, kitchens, floors, and living areas
- Make beds and change linens
- Restock supplies such as towels, toiletries, and paper goods
- Do laundry and keep cleaning equipment organized
- Report any maintenance issues or damages to the office
- Help keep the lodge grounds and common areas tidy

What we offer

- A retirement plan you can start From day one
- Paid lunch breaks
- Use of the Lodge beach in your off hours
- A flexible schedule that fits your life
- A peaceful, beautiful workplace at a lakeside lodge
- $16 per hour, plus 3% gratuity on guest stays
- Periodic raises based on performance

Who we're looking for Someone reliable, thorough, and take-pride-in-your-work minded who is already part of the local community or hopes to make it their home. Cleaning experience is a plus but not required, and we're happy to train the right person. You should be comfortable being on your feet and doing physical work, including lifting and bending. We'd love to find someone who returns season after season and grows with us.
